European network of employee representatives in the dairy industry

European dairy industry

- More than 350,000 employees
- Over 12,000 production sites
- Important role in the European economy
- 10 European companies among TOP 20 of milk processing companies in the world
- Current challenges
  - Structural change
  - Consolidation and internationalisation
  - End of milk quota in 2015

Project

Against the background of current challenges and negative impacts on employment stability and working conditions European trade unions decided to enhance their cooperation and to further discuss these subjects.

The project will – for the first time – bring together employee representatives from multinational and small and medium-sized enterprises as well as trade unions of the dairy industry in different European countries.

Project Modules

Companies in the network

- Nestlé
- Lactalis
- Royal Friesland Campina
- Arla Foods
- Danone
- DMK
- Berglandmilch
- Edelweiß (Bongrain SA)
- Hochwald
- Rajo A.S.
- Hochland
- Kraft
- Polmlek „Maćkowy”
- NÖM
- Group Bel
- Zott Se & Co.KG

The network is open to further companies.

Project Aims

- Systematic exchange of information and discussion of current trends and expansion plans of companies
- Promotion and support of European Works Councils
- Development of concepts and examples of good practice on social dialogue or other initiatives of employee representatives
- Strengthening of information and consultation practices of employees on the European level
